Re: Gill v. Giuliani

Dear Judge Cote:

Following our last court appearance, a colleague of mine, who represents the defendant in another matter, reached out to me on the defendant's behalf. He informed me that the defendant stated he was not, in fact, on PACER, and that defendant had no knowledge of this Court's decision and order. Without addressing defendant's veracity, my colleague represented that he would make certain that an answer was filed in this matter before the end of the year.

Accordingly, as a professional courtesy, I will wait for the first of the New Year before taking any additional action.

Should my trust be misplaced, I will inform the court and request a bit longer to file a default motion. In any event, I will be present on the 17th to address all matters before the Court.

Sincerely,

-----S-----

Ronald L. Kuby
